1. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: the examiner found no teaching in the prior art that would render obvious the claimed computer program product for directing a computer processor to estimate the location of a rover station with the use of a first base station and a second base station, apparatus and method of estimating the location of a rover station with the use of a first base station and a second base station including "generating a first set of residuals of differential navigation equations, generating a second of residuals of differential navigation equations, and generating an estimate of the rover's location from the first set of residuals, the second set of residuals, and the time offset between the clocks of the first and second base stations", claim 1, lines 10-22.

2. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.

3. Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
